

2 Campion Road, London, E10 5GN

£1,695

This home boasts excellent living space, from the entrance hallway you are greeted with a modern fitted kitchen which is semi open plan to a generously proportioned living area, large double bedroom, ample single bedroom or possible home office and a larger than commonly found bathroom.

Rose Court is a residential road positioned in the centre of Leyton and located between the green spaces of Leyton Manor Park and Jack Cornwell Park. It is within easy reach of several local schools, including the highly sought after Willow Brook primary school due to its outstanding Ofsted rating, making this a very popular location for families.

Local transport links can be found at the well-connected Leyton Midland Road Station which is within an approximate 9 minute walking distance from the property (source Google) offering access across London.

