Summary

This is one of two recently completed homes in a highly desirable road in Lilliput. Extending to approaching 3,000 sq ft, the property enjoys harbour views from the principal lifestyle room and top floor.

The upper ground floor provides three double bedrooms, all connecting to the beautifully landscaped grounds, together with three bathrooms. The first floor features a spectacular open-plan living space, featuring a high-quality, hand-painted kitchen with stone worktops and an especially large breakfast bar. Bi-fold doors open onto a sun terrace, making the most of the impressive harbour views.

The top floor offers a versatile multipurpose room, which could be used as a principal bedroom, with further harbour views and a large en-suite bathroom.

The lower ground floor features a 6.8-metre integral garage and additional workshop, offering excellent flexibility for a variety of uses. Throughout, the standard of finish and specification is exceptionally high, with beautifully executed contemporary interiors and sophisticated appointments.
