 GUIDE PRICE £270,000-£290,000 ***

A delightful two bedroom ground floor flat which ticks the all important three boxes when considering an apartment - private entrance, private front and rear gardens and a 50% share in the freehold. Favourably positioned to the lower end of Bear Road, this charming bay-fronted property is considered to be in good decorative order throughout with well-proportioned accommodation offering a South-facing lounge with wood burning stove, two double bedrooms, refitted bathroom with tub and window and a fitted kitchen with access onto the rear garden. The rear garden has been thoughtfully arranged with an area laid to lawn, timber-retained planter and pergola covered decked terrace with mature grapevine. Located in a popular residential area just off Lewes Road, convenient for schools and local amenities including shops, cafes and supermarkets which can all be found close by. Frequent bus services into the city centre and universities and a short leisurely walk into central Brighton. A wonderful first time purchase.
