A rare opportunity to acquire an impressive four-bedroom end-of-terrace family home within the prestigious, gated Buckston Browne Gardens development in Downe. Forming part of a historic Arts & Crafts building dating back to 1934, the property offers approximately 2,065 sq. ft. of spacious and versatile accommodation arranged over three floors. Features include a generous reception room, conservatory, fitted kitchen, separate breakfast room, utility room, principal bedroom with en-suite and a spacious second-floor bedroom. Further benefits include underfloor heating, double glazing, an attractive wrap-around garden, garage and two allocated parking spaces. Set within an exclusive development of just seven homes, the property combines historic charm, modern comfort and a peaceful semi-rural setting close to Downe village and the renowned Down House.
