Situation

The property is set within walking distance to the centre of Camelford town which offers a full range of social, commercial and shopping facilities together with primary school, secondary school and supermarket. Within easy walking distance of the property is the main leisure recreation space within the town with pretty riverside park.

In all directions from Camelford there is scenery of outstanding natural beauty. To the north are stunning stretches of the rugged Cornish coastline featuring family beaches such as Tregardock, Trebarwith, Bossiney, Crackington and Widemouth Bay, all linked by superb National Trust cliff scenery and the gorgeous South West Coast Path.

To the west is the coveted estuarine scenery of the Camel Estuary flanked by Padstow, Rock and Polzeath with surfing, sailing and other water activities.

To the south are the wide open spaces of Bodmin Moor ideal for walking and riding with close easy access to the stunning scenery around Roughtor and Brown Willy, Cornwall's highest Tors.

Whilst to the east are the hidden charms of the Tamar Valley steeped in 17th Century mining history and emptying out into Plymouth Sound with all its yachting activities.

A large (80+ sqm) semi-detached property which has been well maintained and presented throughout. The property offers further potential for extension to three bedrooms on the first floor, subject to the necessary planning permissions being achieved, but as it stands offers wonderful well spaced bright and spacious accommodation.

The property boasts oil fired central heating throughout, large lounge / diner and recently fitted kitchen, two bedrooms and family bathroom. The property also benefits from off street parking for one car, garage and south facing rear garden. A must see for any buyer looking for a well sized property in this location being within walking distance to primary and secondary school in addition to the town facilities.
