35 Old School Lane

Location & Description

Famous for its rich history, Monmouth is a vibrant market town situated at the confluence of the Rivers Wye and Mono. It is the birthplace of King Henry 5th, and has the unique landmark of the 13th Century Mono Bridge Gatehouse, the only one of its kind remaining in Britain. Monmouth is a popular tourist destination due to its proximity to the Wye Valley, a designated Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The lively cultural scene includes the Blake Theatre and an annual music festival. Not far away is the legendary Rockfield recording studio, made famous by a wide range of groups including Queen and Coldplay. The town has many independent shops, as well as the Waitrose and M&S food store! Good communications are another factor in the area's popularity.

Property Description

Situated within a short distance of Monmouth town centre, 35 Old School Lane comprises a 4 bedroom detached house constructed some 10 years ago, and positioned in a quite cul de sac. Of brick construction under a hipped and pitched roof Number 35 is one of approximately 40 properties, of varying designs, in the small development of Old School Lane. The entrance hall leads into a light and welcoming sitting room with a deep bay window to the front, which then opens into the kitchen/breakfast room filled with natural light from the double doors which open into the conservatory. To the first floor, accessed off the spacious landing, is a master bedroom with ensuite shower room, together with three further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Outside, the rear garden provides an attractive paved sun terrace, a level lawn and a single garage and driveway. For those looking potentially interested we strongly recommend an early internal viewing.
