The rear garden is laid mainly to lawn and enclosed by low level brick walling and timber fencing.

Gate at the rear of the garden gives access to an area of parking which is accessed from the service lane off Burnham Road.

Description

This spacious, older style, semi detached house is conveniently situated in the small town of Highbridge which offers a range of shops including Asda supermarket and also Highbridge train station.
The nearby seaside town of Burnham on Sea is approximately a mile and a half away and access to the M5 is at Junction 22, Edithmead.
The property is in need of general improvement but offers good-size accommodation which is presented over two floors. An entrance porch at the side of the property leads to an entrance hall with understairs recess, reception space is in the form of a lounge and separate dining room (which could be used as a fourth bedroom if required) and the kitchen to the rear of the house has a utility room, w.c and lean to extension off.
To the first floor there are three double bedrooms and a family bathroom.
The property is gas centrally heated with a combination boiler and double glazed.
Externally, there is a low maintenance, gravelled area to the front with brick boundary wall and the rear garden is laid to lawn, enclosed and has a gate giving access to the area of parking which is accessed via a service lane off Burnham Road.
An early inspection to view is recommended.

Directions

From the M5 motorway, Junction 22 at Edithmead, taking the first exit onto the A38 towards Highbridge. At the next roundabout, take the third exit and continue over the railway bridge and at the next roundabout take the third exit towards Burnham on Sea where the property can be found immediately on the right hand side on the corner of Burnham Road and Church Street.
