LOCATION

Lees Hall Farm is located within the small village of Harehill, forming part of the civil parish of the sought-after village of Boylestone. The property enjoys a peaceful rural setting whilst remaining conveniently accessible to the nearby market towns of Ashbourne and Uttoxeter, lying approximately 7 miles south of Ashbourne and 10 miles north-west of Uttoxeter. The city of Derby is approximately 16 miles to the east, with these together providing an extensive range of amenities, schools and services.

The larger village of Boylestone, located approximately 1 mile to the south-east, offers a traditional rural community with local amenities nearby, whilst the surrounding area is predominantly agricultural in nature, characterised by rolling countryside, quiet country lanes, public footpaths and bridleways. Good road links are available via the A50 and A515, providing access to the wider Midlands road network.

DESCRIPTION

An opportunity to acquire a rural residential development site extending to approximately 3.15 acres (1.27 hectares), comprising a Grade II listed red-brick farmhouse, a substantial range of traditional and modern farm buildings, and an associated yard area, situated in a rolling countryside location in South Derbyshire.

The site offers substantial development potential and benefits from Class Q planning approval for the conversion of existing agricultural buildings into residential units. In addition, a planning application has been submitted seeking consent for the demolition of the existing agricultural buildings and the construction of new residential dwellings.

Situated within open countryside yet conveniently located close to local services and transport links, the property occupies an attractive and accessible rural setting.

PLANNING PERMISSION

Currently, the site benefits from Class Q planning permission to convert the existing agricultural buildings into 9 dwellings.

Planning Application References:

DMPN/2023/1324 (approval for conversion of into 5 dwellings)

DMPA/2024/1156 (approval for conversion into 4 dwellings)

In addition, there is currently an application submitted to South Derbyshire Local Authority to demolish some of the existing agricultural buildings and built new build dwellings, which is currently awaiting decision:

DMPA/2025/1591 (Demolition of 2 existing agricultural buildings (one of which benefits from prior approval for residential conversion for 5 dwellings ref. DMPN/2023/1324), the change of use, conversion and extension of existing agricultural barns to up to 4 residential dwellings and erection of up to 5 new-build dwellings).

THE FARMHOUSE

The farmhouse has a breadth of retained period features, and benefits from a kitchen, large walk in pantry, WC, storeroom, sitting room and dining room to the ground floor, two double bedrooms with ensuites, one single bedroom, main bathroom, with two further substantial attic rooms and a third attic room which contains the water tank. The farmhouse has a Gross Internal Area of approximately 3200 square feet.

TENURE

The property will be sold freehold with vacant possession.
