We have tried to make sure that these particulars are accurate but, to a large extent, we have to rely on what the seller tells us about the property. Once you find the property you want to buy, you will need to carry out more investigations into the property than it is practical or reasonable for an estate agent to do when preparing sales particulars. For example, we have not carried out any kind of survey of the property to look for structural defects and would advise any homebuyer to obtain a surveyor's report before exchanging contracts. If you do not have your own surveyor, we would be pleased to recommend one. We have not checked whether any equipment in the property (such as central heating) is in working order and would advise homebuyers to check this. You should also instruct a solicitor to investigate all legal matters relating to the property (e.g. title, planning permission, etc) as these are specialist matters in which estate agents are not qualified. Your solicitor will also agree with the seller what items (e.g. carpets, curtains, etc) will be included in the sale.

4 Mill Close, Wannock, Polegate, BN26 5PD

A truly exceptional detached family home, occupying a generous cul-de-sac plot in the highly desirable village of Wannock at the foot of the South Downs. Originally a bungalow, the property has been extensively extended both upwards and to the rear, creating a stunning home that combines generous proportions with immaculate presentation throughout. At the heart of the property is a spectacular open plan family room with a central breakfast island and bi-folds onto the rear garden, perfect for modern family living and entertaining, complemented by a cosy triple-aspect sitting room, utility room, ground floor shower room and a further versatile reception room that could equally serve as a fourth bedroom, home office or snug. A striking galleried landing leads to three spacious double bedrooms, with the principal suite enjoying his and hers fitted wardrobes, a stylish en-suite shower room and a beautifully appointed family bathroom. Outside, the property continues to impress with a substantial driveway providing parking for numerous vehicles and a single garage that already benefits from planning permission for a triple garage. Part of the generous triangular plot has been landscaped to create a private patio seating area, while the larger section offers enormous potential to create a spectacular garden, having previously been used for storage. Perfectly positioned for countryside living, the property enjoys immediate access to the South Downs National Park with exceptional walking routes, while the picturesque village of Jevington and its renowned Eight Bells pub are close by. Polegate's mainline railway station, along with excellent access to the A22 and A27, ensures superb connectivity for commuters.
