NEW! Immaculately presented and newly renovated bungalow, offering contemporary-style living, this attractive three-bedroom bungalow has been recently upgraded throughout and to an extremely high standard, it benefits from easy-to-manage gardens to the front and rear, a private driveway and detached garage. The property features a smart modern kitchen with garden views and direct access, a generously proportioned lounge with space for dining and a feature media wall with integrated fire, three well-appointed bedrooms including a spacious master with fitted wardrobe furniture and vanity area, and a stylish family bathroom with contrasting finishes. Conveniently located close to bus services, schools, Co-op and Tesco stores, a community centre and the beachfront with coastal walks, children's play areas and café, this is an excellent family home in a popular and well-connected location.
