3 Bedroom House - Semi-Detached located in London

On the market for the first time since 1990, this attractive 1930s Cox-built family home offers generous living space, exciting potential to extend (STPP), and an enviable location within the sought after catchment for both Ashmole Primary and Ashmole Academy.

Arranged over approximately 1,238 sq. ft., the property blends charming period proportions with practical modern living. The ground floor features a bright front reception room, perfect for relaxing or entertaining, while to the rear a spacious open plan kitchen/diner creates a superb social hub overlooking the west-facing garden, ideal for enjoying afternoon and evening sun. A useful utility room, downstairs cloakroom, and direct access to the garage (via a secure gated rear alleyway) add further convenience. Upstairs, the first floor comprises of three bedrooms, along with a family bathroom and separate toilet.

The property is conveniently located for Southgate Underground Station (Piccadilly Line), offering direct access into Central London and making it an ideal choice for commuters. Overall this property offers good transport links, local amenities and outstanding schools, making it a perfect choice for families and commuters alike

Book your viewing (Open Day Saturday 18th April and 25th April by appointment) to appreciate the space, location, and future potential this wonderful home has to offer.
