SITUATION

Wheelwright's Cottage lies on the edge of Oldways End, occupying a peaceful rural position on the Somerset/Devon border and just south of the beautiful Exmoor National Park. The surrounding area is characterised by unspoilt countryside, quiet country lanes and gently rolling farmland, providing an idyllic setting for those seeking a traditional rural lifestyle. Anstey Common is only a few minutes' drive away and offers stunning open moorland scenery, with exceptional opportunities for walking and riding across Exmoor's landscape.

Dulverton, approximately four miles away, is well known as the 'Gateway to Exmoor' and provides a good range of amenities including a variety of shops, post office, chemist, doctors', veterinary and dental surgeries. Communications are excellent, with easy access to the A361 North Devon Link Road, connecting to the M5 at Tiverton (J27) and fast mainline rail services to London from Tiverton Parkway.

DESCRIPTION

Wheelwright's Cottage is a large semi-detached period property offering flexible and well-proportioned accommodation arranged over two floors. It offers tremendous scope and potential, with generous room sizes, attractive outlooks and a highly practical layout.

The cottage benefits from approximately 5 acres of level paddocks, ideally laid out for ease of management. There are four stables in total, together with a tack room and a field shelter

ACCOMMODATION

Upon entering Wheelwright's Cottage, a welcoming entrance hall provides access to the principal ground floor rooms and the staircase rising to the first floor. The kitchen is well proportioned and fitted with a range of units, centred around the traditional 'Stanley' range cooker, with space for appliances and enjoying a practical layout for day-to-day living.

The dining room lies adjacent to the kitchen and offers an excellent space for entertaining, with ample room for a large dining table and views over the garden. The sitting room is a comfortable and inviting reception room, featuring an open fireplace and enjoying a pleasant outlook. A separate family room provides further versatile living space, suitable for a snug, playroom or home office. Completing the ground floor accommodation are a useful utility room and a separate WC.

Stairs rise to the first floor where there are three bedrooms, offering flexible accommodation for families and guests, together with a bathroom and utility with potential for a second bathroom.

OUTSIDE

The property is approached via a gated driveway which opens into an extensive parking and turning area, suitable for horse boxes and larger vehicles. The gardens surrounding the house are well maintained and include areas of lawn and a paved terrace ideal for outdoor dining. Beyond the gardens lie approximately 5.5 acres of level paddocks. The property benefits from four stables in total completed with a tack room and a field shelter.
