Alexanders are delighted to bring to the market this detached home, offered with no upward chain and presenting excellent potential for further enhancement. Located in the sought-after village of Barlestone, the property provides spacious and traditional accommodation throughout and is complimented by a large driveway offering parking for multiple vehicles.

An entrance porch to the front elevation leads to the generous full width sitting room which benefits from a feature gas fireplace. The breakfast kitchen offers plenty of storage in base and wall mounted cabinetry and there is a separate utility room which houses the boiler. A ground floor shower room with a separate WC completes the downstairs accommodation.

To the first floor, there are two double bedrooms, one of which is fully fitted with built in cabinetry. The contemporary four piece family bathroom is very spacious in size and includes a useful storage cupboard.

The property is set back from the road, framed by a block paved area in an elevated position with a large tarmac driveway to the left offering parking for multiple vehicles. There is a detached garage with pedestrian doors to both elevations giving access to a very private and low maintenance seating area laid with Astro turf.

Location:

Barlestone is a popular Leicestershire village, surrounded by attractive countryside, situated just over 3.5 miles from the revered market town of Market Bosworth. The village remains well placed for commuters, with excellent access to the A5, M1 and M69 linking Leicester, Birmingham and Nottingham. The village offers a range of local amenities including shops, pubs, sports facilities and the well-regarded Barlestone Church of England Primary School, with further schooling available nearby in Market Bosworth and Hinckley. Rail services from nearby Hinckley and Nuneaton provide direct connections to Birmingham and London, making Barlestone an ideal location for families and professionals alike.
