About this property

This beautifully transformed 1960s bungalow has been reimagined as a stylish three-bedroom detached home, offering contemporary living and superb far-reaching views. Behind its unassuming frontage lies an exceptionally well-appointed family home that makes the most of its elevated hilltop position. The property is entered via a spacious entrance hall with tiled flooring. This level provides a utility room/WC and three generously sized bedrooms, each benefiting from its own en-suite bathroom or shower room. The principal bedroom is particularly impressive, featuring a luxurious four-piece en-suite bathroom. A short flight of stairs leads to the heart of the home – a stunning open-plan kitchen, dining and family space. Flooded with natural light from the dramatic two-storey glazed rear elevation, this impressive room enjoys wonderful views over the garden. The contemporary kitchen is fitted with integrated appliances and a central island, while the remaining space comfortably accommodates a large dining table and a cosy seating area centred around a fireplace with log burning stove. Bi-fold doors provide seamless access to the rear garden, creating an ideal space for both everyday living and entertaining. A further short flight of stairs leads to the spectacular top-floor living room. This striking space enjoys breathtaking views across Bannau Brycheiniog National Park to the front, while the rear features a galleried aspect overlooking the open-plan living area below and the garden beyond. Outside, the landscaped rear garden offers a large paved patio leading to lawned areas, together with a summerhouse and a garage accessed via a rear lane. The property is offered for sale with no onward chain.
