Chequers Road

Nestled along a peaceful lane in the heart of a sought-after village near Manningtree, this enchanting detached home is a rare offering for buyers seeking something truly unique. Once a thriving Methodist Chapel, originally constructed in 1863, this characterful property has been thoughtfully transformed into a remarkable residence, seamlessly blending period features with contemporary comforts.

The house boasts three well-proportioned bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, with a versatile ground floor layout ideal for today's family lifestyles. A significant extension in 2019 has enhanced the spacious kitchen/dining area, where solid oak shaker cabinetry and integrated appliances create a warm and inviting hub for gatherings. The adjoining utility room provides added convenience, while the flexible rear room offers options as an office, bedroom or additional reception space to suit your needs.

Step into the impressive living room, where double height, vaulted ceilings and a striking mezzanine landing evoke the building's historic origins, creating an airy sense of space and light. Upstairs, the principal bedroom features an en-suite shower room, while the ground floor bedroom and family bathroom ensure practicality and privacy for all.

Outside, enjoy a charming courtyard garden perfect for al fresco relaxation, alongside driveway parking. Meticulously renovated and benefiting from a new roof (2016), this home is ready to move into, offering peace of mind and a lifestyle rich in history. For families or those desiring a distinctive, beautifully finished home within easy reach of Manningtree and the surrounding countryside, this chapel conversion is a must-see.
