Offers In The Region Of
£315,000

Moments from the shoreline & heart of Mumbles this Victorian fisherman's cottages setting carries the gentle rhythm of coastal village life. Independent cafes, galleries & local shops line the seafront promenade, while coastal path walks extend towards the sands of Langland Bay & the breathtaking beauty of the Gower peninsula. Historic landmarks such as Oystermouth Castle overlook the Bay & everyday amenities, schools & transport links into Swansea & beyond remain within easy reach.

This charming characterful house unfolds across a thoughtfully arranged interior of approximately 850 square feet set within a modest yet manageable plot of around 0'02 acres. A welcoming split level lounge & dining room forms the heart of the ground floor, offering an adaptable space for quiet evenings or hosting friends & family. The bay window offers generous light & a picturesque Seaview. The adjoining kitchen, bathroom & courtyard complete the practical ground floor layout, upstairs three bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation. From the front bedroom elevated village views extend across rooftops framing a view of the waters of Swansea Bay. The open plan sky lighted attic offers storage & panoramic views over Mumbles village, Swansea Bay & beyond.

Externally the rear roof top terrace garden can be accessed from the steps leading from the ground floor courtyard or third bedroom. There is a convenient recessed discrete storage area behind the bathroom. Designed to encourage outdoor living this elevated space easily accommodates table & chairs, ideal for morning coffee or relaxed summer dining watching the tides ebb & flow. One step up transports you from the roof garden terrace to further elevation where a log cabin summerhouse resides with potential to be utilised as an office, gym, creative space or sheltered space to leisurely enjoy the much sought after Seaview's.
