For Sale Freehold £220,000

Deceptively spacious and full of character, this three-bedroom mid-terraced home is one to move quickly on — offering original period features, generous accommodation and a large rear garden, all at a very competitive price for the area. Ideally suited to first-time buyers, professional couples and families alike, the property further benefits from a useful cellar room and an excellent outdoor space.

The property is approached through a timber gate into a low-maintenance buffer garden enclosed by timber fencing. The entrance hall gives access to the first-floor staircase and leads into a bright living room, which retains attractive period features including a detailed ceiling rose and ornate coving. The living room flows through to a spacious kitchen diner, fitted with a range of integrated appliances and offering an ideal space for everyday dining and entertaining. A timber door leads to the rear porch, while a further staircase gives access to the lower ground floor of a cellar room, with lighting, providing valuable additional storage. To the first floor, the landing gives access to three well-proportioned bedrooms and a modern three-piece family bathroom. Externally, the rear garden is a particular feature of the property. A generous L-shaped paved patio provides an ideal setting for al fresco dining and entertaining, while beyond it lies a larger lawned garden with a further paved seating area and a substantial timber double shed, all enclosed by timber fencing.

The property is conveniently positioned within walking distance of local amenities and schools, with regular bus services providing access to Wakefield city centre, while the M1 motorway network is also only a short distance away, making the property particularly convenient for commuters. An early viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the space, character and generous garden this attractive home has to offer.
