Avenue Road,
Abergavenny
£600,000

- ♥ Detached House
- ♥ Prime Residential Location
- ♥ Three Double Bedrooms
- ♥ Modernisation Potential

About this property

A substantial three-bedroom detached home situated on Avenue Road, widely regarded as one of Abergavenny's most desirable residential addresses on the sought-after western side of the town. Built in the 1980s, the property has been a much-loved home and now offers an excellent opportunity for a new owner to modernise and personalise to their own taste. The accommodation is notably spacious for a three-bedroom property, offering a level of living space more commonly associated with a four-bedroom home. The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to a generous living room, which flows through to the dining room. A front-facing conservatory is accessed from the living room, providing additional reception space and pleasant garden views. The kitchen is complemented by a useful utility room, with access to both the integral garage and a separate WC. On the first floor, a large landing serves three well-proportioned bedrooms and a spacious four-piece family bathroom. Externally, the property benefits from driveway parking for two to three vehicles, an integral single garage, and mature gardens enclosed by hedging and fencing, creating an attractive and private outdoor setting. Offered with no onward chain, this is an exceptional home in a highly sought-after location.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.
