"We love the openness of this house, from early spring onwards it's getting home to sunshine, opening the bifolds, with a coffee or a glass of wine and watching the sky change into a million different colours, occasionally having a bbq, where one or three of our neighbours and friends come. Laughter of our children fills the house and our tummies full as the sun goes down the marshmallows get toasted and another bottle of wine gets opened. We also love cooking and dancing in our kitchen!"
