Nestled within the ever-popular Chelmer Village development, just off Binley Road, this beautifully presented one-bedroom end-of-terrace home is the perfect mix of style, comfort, and low-maintenance living — with the huge bonus of two allocated parking spaces included on the title deed. Whether you're a first-time buyer wanting something move-in ready, a savvy investor, or someone looking to downsize without compromising on quality, this home ticks every box.

From the moment you arrive, there's an instant feeling that this is more than "just another one-bed." The entrance porch creates a warm welcome before leading into the cosy lounge — the perfect space for movie nights, Sunday coffees, or simply switching off after a busy day. It's the kind of room that instantly feels like home.

The kitchen is where this property really begins to shine. Installed in 2022, the current owners have created a space that wouldn't look out of place on Instagram or Pinterest. Finished in a timeless shaker-style design with stunning gold feature handles, this kitchen perfectly blends modern elegance with practical living. Integrated appliances include a dishwasher and oven, while the two windows flood the room with natural light throughout the day — because every great kitchen deserves great lighting.

Upstairs, the main bedroom offers a peaceful retreat with a built-in cupboard and plenty of room to create your own relaxing sanctuary. The landing provides two further storage cupboards along with loft access complete with a fitted ladder, ideal for keeping everything neatly tucked away.

The bathroom brings a boutique-hotel vibe with its bespoke sink and Mediterranean-inspired styling, creating a calming space that feels effortlessly different from the ordinary.

Outside, the communal grounds are exceptionally well kept, including a tidy bin store area, all professionally managed for complete peace of mind. The service charge covers the maintenance of the communal grounds along with the building's exterior — including the roof, walls, windows, doors, and buildings insurance — making this a perfect "lock up and leave" lifestyle property.

Further benefits include a modern combi boiler fitted in 2023 and serviced annually, plus the unbeatable convenience of Chelmer Village living with excellent access to retail parks, riverside walks, local amenities, and the A12.

This is the type of home that buyers fall in love with the second they walk through the door — stylish, practical, and packed with charm.
