CODA Estates are delighted to present this unique property to the market. Set on a level plot within a leafy residential pocket of the village, enjoying a good degree of privacy, this property warrants early viewing.

Internally, the property requires modernisation allowing any buyer an excellent opportunity to create and re-configure the house to their own requirements and specification.

The original property was built in 1968 with the extension being added approximately 10 years later. The home has remained within the same family ever since and provided a fabulous environment to raise a growing family.

The ground floor accommodation comprises, entrance porch, a substantial reception hallway, a spacious reception lounge overlooking the front garden. On the ground floor there are two double bedrooms. There is a useful open plan dining/family area to the rear, which flows naturally to the generous kitchen/utility area. The downstairs shower room has been up-graded in recent years and the side door leads to the garden ground.

Up stairs you will find a further two double bedrooms and the large house bathroom.

The large garden plot is well established and stocked with an array of trees, plants, bushes and shrubs, creating a colourful haven at various times of the year. The garden is ideal for relaxing and/or entertaining and the rear garden is fully enclosed (perfect for family pets or younger children). There is ample off street parking and a large garage.

The house has double-glazed windows and a gas fired central heating system. It offers tremendous potential for further development, with no detriment to the outdoor areas, subject to planning permission.
