Offered with no upward chain is this well presented one bedroom apartment within an award winning assisted living facility.

This first floor apartment benefits from lift access and comprises well maintained interiors which have received new carpets throughout, laid to entrance hall, living and dining room, kitchen, wet room and a double bedroom. The apartment benefits from a quiet spot overlooking the communal gardens to the rear of the apartments, towards the picturesque village Church tower.

Built around 15 years ago, Barton Mews is an award winning assisted living facility set within the popular village of Barton under Needwood. Covered by a monthly fee is 24 hour assistance with each resident having an emergency alarm button. Flexible care package options are available and can be amended at any time. Communal amenities within Barton Mews include a lounge, restaurant (with in-room dining also available), launderette, hairdressers, library, hobby room, mobility scooter storage, pleasant gardens and rooftop terraces. On offer to residents is a varied and active social programme both on site, and with regular trips across the Staffordshire area.

Outside is ample parking for residents and visitors, and there is interior access from the ground floor into Barton under Needwood's cottage hospital. In addition to the interior courtyard there are communal gardens to the rear of Barton Mews with a pathway leading into the village centre where amenities including a post office, co-op general store, pharmacy and more can all be found.
