FIRST FLOOR APARTMENT

Positioned in a prominent High Street setting in the heart of Needham Market, this beautifully presented first-floor apartment offers a refined blend of character and contemporary living—ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors.

The property has been refurbished throughout, including a new gas central heating system and electrical re-wire. The property offers a private entrance hall, generous and light-filled living room with a feature fireplace. The newly fitted bespoke Howdens kitchen has been finished with a clean, modern aesthetic, offering integrated hob and oven, with space for further appliances and complemented by oak-effect worktops and ample storage.

The double bedroom is well-proportioned with ample space for furniture. The newly renovated bathroom, is thoughtfully designed with a luxurious four-piece suite. A freestanding roll-top bath adds to the charm of the property, complemented by a fully tiled shower cubicle, creating a space that feels both indulgent and practical.

Needham Market is one of Mid Suffolk's most desirable market towns, known for its strong sense of community and excellent range of amenities. The High Street offers an array of independent shops, cafés, public houses, and essential services including a post office, pharmacy, and Co-op supermarkets. The town also benefits from a doctors' surgery, library, and community centre. For commuters, Needham Market is exceptionally well connected, with its own railway station providing direct links to Ipswich, Stowmarket, and onward to London Liverpool Street.

Surrounded by open countryside and scenic walks, it offers a lifestyle balance that continues to attract buyers seeking both convenience and quality of life.
