Set right in the heart of South Ockendon, with the town centre, local amenities and train station all close at hand, the location certainly ticks the convenience box. Step inside, though, and it's the space that really steals the show.

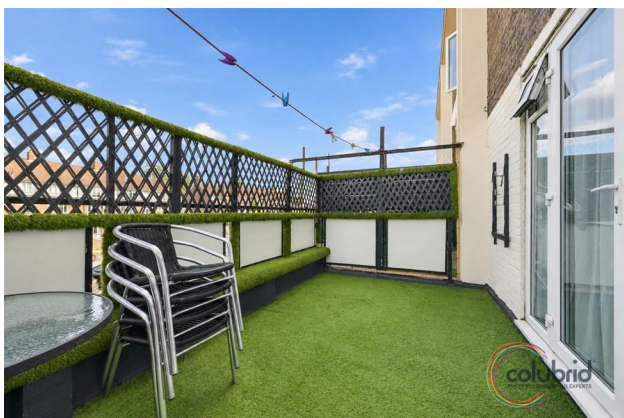

Arranged over two floors, the property welcomes you with an inviting entrance hallway before opening into a spacious kitchen and a wonderfully generous lounge/diner. There's plenty of room to relax, entertain or debate who gets control of the remote, while doors lead out onto a large private balcony — perfect for morning coffee, an evening drink or simply enjoying a little outdoor space of your own.

Head upstairs and you'll find two genuinely good-size double bedrooms, with the principal bedroom being particularly impressive, plus the family bathroom.

There's practical appeal too, with a recently installed combi boiler and a long lease of 119 years adding to an already tempting package.

Spacious, brilliantly located and with that rare "this actually feels like a house" quality, this is an apartment that delivers rather more than its front door might suggest.

Daiglen Drive, South Ockendon — apartment by name, house vibes by nature.
