This charming detached four bedroom converted steading enjoys a peaceful, rural location in Drummur, just a few miles from Keith and local amenities, and incorporates an annexe ideal for multi-generational living or to provide a secondary income as holiday accommodation.

The traditional stone-built property is set around a gravelled courtyard and comprises: Modern dining kitchen, vestibule, shower room, study, bedroom and living room with vaulted ceiling and multi-fuel stove. Stairs lead from a vestibule off the kitchen to an attic bedroom. The annexe is accessed from the rear hallway off the living room and is currently rented out as an Airbnb, comprising a bedroom, a further bedroom/living room, and a bathroom. The annexe furniture can be purchased subject to separate negotiation. The property benefits from double glazing and oil-fired central heating, while drainage is via a private septic tank.

A private driveway provides ample parking, while the mature wrap-around garden extends to around 0.83 acres and has a summer house, two timber sheds, woodstores, polytunnels and a greenhouse, attracting visitors such as squirrels and pine martens. There is a detached single timber garage.

We highly recommend a viewing to appreciate the full potential and versatile living space within this lovely family home.
