THE PROPERTY

Set in the heart of the charming village of Thorncombe, this attractive late-1800s semi-detached home on Chard Street blends period charm with generous living space. Built from local stone and brick, the property features two welcoming reception rooms, ideal for everyday family life or relaxed entertaining.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms along with a family bathroom, offering flexibility for families, home working, or hosting guests.

OUTSIDE

The gardens wrap around the property, offering a variety of peaceful places to sit and enjoy the charming village setting, with lovely views towards the church. At the rear, an attractive Indian sandstone patio extends directly from the dining room, creating an inviting space for outdoor dining and relaxation. A brick-built outhouse with power and light provides the added benefit of practical storage or potential hobby space.

SITUATION

Thorncombe is known for its thriving village community and local amenities such as village shop, primary school, church, and village swimming pool.
