Enjoying a prime, semi-rural location, with stunning views towards Loch Creran and the surrounding countryside, the sale offers an exciting opportunity to purchase a most generous building plot. Located above the Barcaldine area, the plot forms an attractive site, benefiting from Planning Permission in Principle for the erection of a dwellinghouse, and extending to around 0.8 acres.

The much sought-after village of Barcaldine has a primary school, marine laboratory, café, pottery, camping and caravanning park, and Barcaldine Castle, whilst the neighbouring village of Benderloch offers further amenities, including a church, excellent convenience store, garage, and petrol station selling a range of outdoor equipment. It is also close to a bus route, national cycle routes and forest walks. The principal town of Oban, some ten miles distant, offers a comprehensive range of services, both commercially and culturally. Known as "The Seafood Capital of Scotland", the town is also the Gateway to the Isles, with ferry, train and air services, linking the islands to the mainland and central belt.

Planning Permission

Full Planning Permission was granted on 2nd April 2025 (Ref: 25/00231/PPP) for the erection of a detached dwellinghouse. Copies of this Planning Permission and approved plans are available on Argyll & Bute Council Planning website or on request with the selling agent.

Services

Mains electricity and water are located nearby the site and will require connection. Drainage will be to a private septic tank and soakaway, and will be the purchaser's responsibility to install and connect. The plot is served by a newly formed access road shown on the below site plan.

Travel Directions

From Oban, take the A85 road to Connel, then the A828 over Connel Bridge, signposted Fort William. From the bridge, follow the road, passing through the village of Benderloch. After approximately two miles, you will pass the Yeoman Glensanda Site on the left, and on the next bend, you will pass a meshed rockface, also on the left hand side. The road will begin to gently slope down a hill and the access drive, to the Plot at Cnoc an Fhurain, is located just before the layby on the right-hand side.
