A beautifully presented Victorian terrace house situated in a quiet close in the highly sought-after area of Fleetville, just moments from local shops, well-regarded schools, and the mainline train station.

The accommodation begins with a part-glazed front door opening into a welcoming lounge featuring a sash window to the front, a charming fireplace, and attractive wooden flooring. An archway leads seamlessly into the sociable dining room, which enjoys views over the rear garden and includes stairs to the first floor.

A doorway leads through to the stylish modern kitchen, fitted with a range of wall and base units and a mix of integrated and freestanding appliances. The kitchen enjoys plenty of natural light from windows to the side and rear, with a door providing access to the delightful west-facing garden.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing gives access to the loft hatch and doors to all rooms. The principal bedroom benefits from a sash window to the front and a built-in fitted wardrobe, while the second bedroom enjoys a pleasant outlook over the rear garden and includes a useful built-in cupboard. The spacious family bathroom features a modern fitted suite comprising a bath, separate shower cubicle, basin, and WC.

Externally, the charming west-facing rear garden offers a paved patio leading to a well-kept lawn, with a garden office at the far end complete with light and power, ideal for home working or creative pursuits.

This attractive period home also offers excellent potential for a loft conversion and rear extension, subject to the usual planning permissions.
