DESCRIPTION

Dating back to the 19th century, The Coach House was originally constructed as the stable block serving the prestigious Kelsterton Hall estate. Over time, the property was separated from the main estate and has transformed into an exceptional standalone residence of remarkable character and distinction.

Today, The Coach House extends to almost 6,000 sq ft of beautifully presented accommodation, combining elegant period architecture with contemporary luxury. Arranged around a striking central courtyard, the property offers an impressive combination of original character features, generous proportions and modern comforts. The result is a truly unique home that successfully balances its rich heritage with the needs of modern family living.

The property's extensive and highly adaptable accommodation makes it ideally suited to a variety of lifestyles, including multi-generational living, home working, guest accommodation and scope to create separate living accommodation or subdivide elements of the property, subject to the necessary planning permission.

INTERNAL

A striking reception hall immediately sets the tone for the quality and scale found throughout the property, featuring a vaulted ceiling, galleried landing and impressive marble tiled flooring which extends through the principal circulation areas. The ground floor provides an exceptional range of versatile living space and reception rooms.

The extensive layout includes a music room with vaulted ceiling and exposed character beams, a games room, study, office/bedroom six, reading room with doors opening onto a decking area, gym, utility room with plumbing suitable for commercial-scale laundry facilities, sitting room and a beautifully appointed shower room featuring a walk-in rainfall shower.

There is an open-plan kitchen/breakfast room, thoughtfully designed with sleek contemporary cabinetry, premium integrated appliances and expansive quartz work surfaces. This flows into the formal dining room and onwards to the outstanding lounge, an elegant reception space characterised by high ceilings, decorative cornicing, ornate detailing and French doors opening directly onto the courtyard. Together, these rooms create an exceptional environment for entertaining. Completing the ground floor is a cinema room.

Two separate staircases lead to the first floor, where an unusually wide landing further enhances the property's excellent sense of space. There are five generously proportioned double bedrooms, each well-appointed and featuring exposed beams, skylights, fitted storage and attractive architectural details. The fifth bedroom suite is particularly impressive, extending to 800 sq ft with a substantial walk-in dressing room. There is a luxurious principal bathroom, designed to provide a spa-like experience and incorporating a freestanding bath, large walk-in rainfall shower, contemporary sanitaryware and high-quality tiling, enhanced by subtle feature lighting.

In addition, a two-storey studio with independent access from the courtyard offers excellent flexibility and could serve as a home office, creative studio, hobby room or potential annexe.

EXTERNAL

The property is approached via impressive electrically operated timber gates flanked by substantial stone pillars, creating an immediate sense of privacy, security and prestige. The drive sweeps round to the rear of the property where there is a driveway for ample parking between the property and the tennis court.

A particular highlight is the beautiful cobbled courtyard accessed through elegant wrought-iron gates and enclosed by attractive brick walls. Centred around a striking water feature, this wonderful and idyllic space forms the heart of the property and provides an exceptional setting for outdoor entertaining, al fresco dining and relaxation.

The property itself is arranged around the courtyard featuring attractive red-brick elevations, timber detailing and traditional clay-tiled roof, beautifully reflecting its historic origins.

Beyond the courtyard, the grounds offer a variety of outdoor spaces including expansive front lawn with mature trees, a charming 'secret garden' located adjacent to the all-weather tennis court and decking area for seating and to enjoy the surrounding far reaching countryside views. There is also a separate garden/ tool store.

Combining architectural heritage and modern luxury, The Coach House represents a rare opportunity to acquire a truly exceptional family home within a private and distinctive setting.
