An immaculately presented end-terraced home which has undergone a comprehensive programme of renovation to create a stylish and contemporary residence, ideally positioned for access to local amenities.

The accommodation is well balanced and finished to a high standard throughout, benefitting from full gas central heating and double glazing. The ground floor comprises an entrance hall with office area, half cellar, a well-proportioned sitting room, and an impressive kitchen/dining room fitted with a new window and external door. Completing the ground floor is a utility room with WC.

To the first floor there are two double bedrooms, each featuring a well-appointed en suite.

Externally, the property enjoys a newly landscaped and fully enclosed rear garden, offering a paved seating terrace, lawned area, and timber store.

As part of the recent renovation works, the property has been fitted with EcoQuilt Expert insulation and a new boiler (installed January 2024).
