Backing onto open fields and nestled at the head of a quiet cul-de-sac, this semi-detached home occupies a commanding corner plot and has been thoughtfully enhanced by the current owner.

The property immediately impresses with a substantial gravel driveway providing ample off-road parking for multiple vehicles.

Inside, the heart of the home is a light and airy lounge, centered around a cozy log-burning stove. The ground floor further boasts a sleek, refitted kitchen/diner, designed for modern living with French doors that transition seamlessly to the expansive rear garden.

Perhaps the most exciting feature is the significant space to the side of the dwelling; this offers exceptional potential for a substantial extension or the construction of a garage (subject to the necessary planning permissions). With its blend of modern interiors and a vast outdoor footprint, this home is a rare find.

The accommodation comprises:
