Ground Floor

The front door opens to the entrance hall which has stairs rising to the first floor landing. From here, stripped wooden floorboards flow throughout the dining room which boasts a log burner, leading into the living room which has a bay window to the front and an open fireplace. From the dining area a door opens directly to the fitted kitchen which provides a comprehensive range of base and eye level units and door opening to the rear garden which also leads to:

Lower Ground Floor

A door from the garden provides direct access to the lower ground floor, currently arranged as a combined home office and utility room. It features a run of worktops with a recessed Belfast sink, along with space and plumbing for a washer/dryer. A conveniently located WC is also included.

First Floor

The first floor landing gives direct access to 2 of the 3 double bedrooms and to the luxuriously appointed family bathroom which has been fitted with a four piece suite to include a separate shower cubicle and bath. The principal bedroom spans the entire width of the property and has a bay window to the front.

Second Floor

Moving to the second floor a door opens to a third double bedroom which has a window to the rear with wonderful elevated views over the valley of Berkhamsted and providing ample storage into the eaves spaces. This floor also has the advantage of a shower room which is fitted with a three piece suite to include a corner shower cubicle, wc and wash basin.

Outside

To the front of the property is a deep set border with a quarry tiled pathway leading to the front door. The rear garden has a sandstone patio area directly to the rear of the house which leads to the main portion of the South Westerly garden which has a vast array of planting and mature borders. The garden is fully enclosed and has steps down to the lower ground floor. It is worth noting that the property is positioned off the road and as such there is ample on road parking directly to the front of the house.
