An Exceptional Home in the Prestigious Longdean Park Estate

Set within an expansive 0.45-acre south-facing corner plot, this rare and striking residence offers a perfect blend of grandeur, space, and seclusion in one of the area's most exclusive private estates. Surrounded by mature woodland and just moments from Bunkers Park, this is an opportunity not to be missed.

Inside, the home opens to a grand entrance hall with a sweeping staircase and minstrel galleried landing. The principal bedroom features its own en-suite, while three further bedrooms — including a versatile loft room with Velux windows and WC — are served by a luxurious four-piece family bathroom.

The ground floor is designed for both elegant entertaining and relaxed family living, boasting a formal drawing room, a sun-filled orangery, a dining room, and a generous kitchen/diner, alongside a utility/boot room, cloakroom, and cozy family room. This leads to bedroom five/games room, ideal as part of a potential self-contained annex.

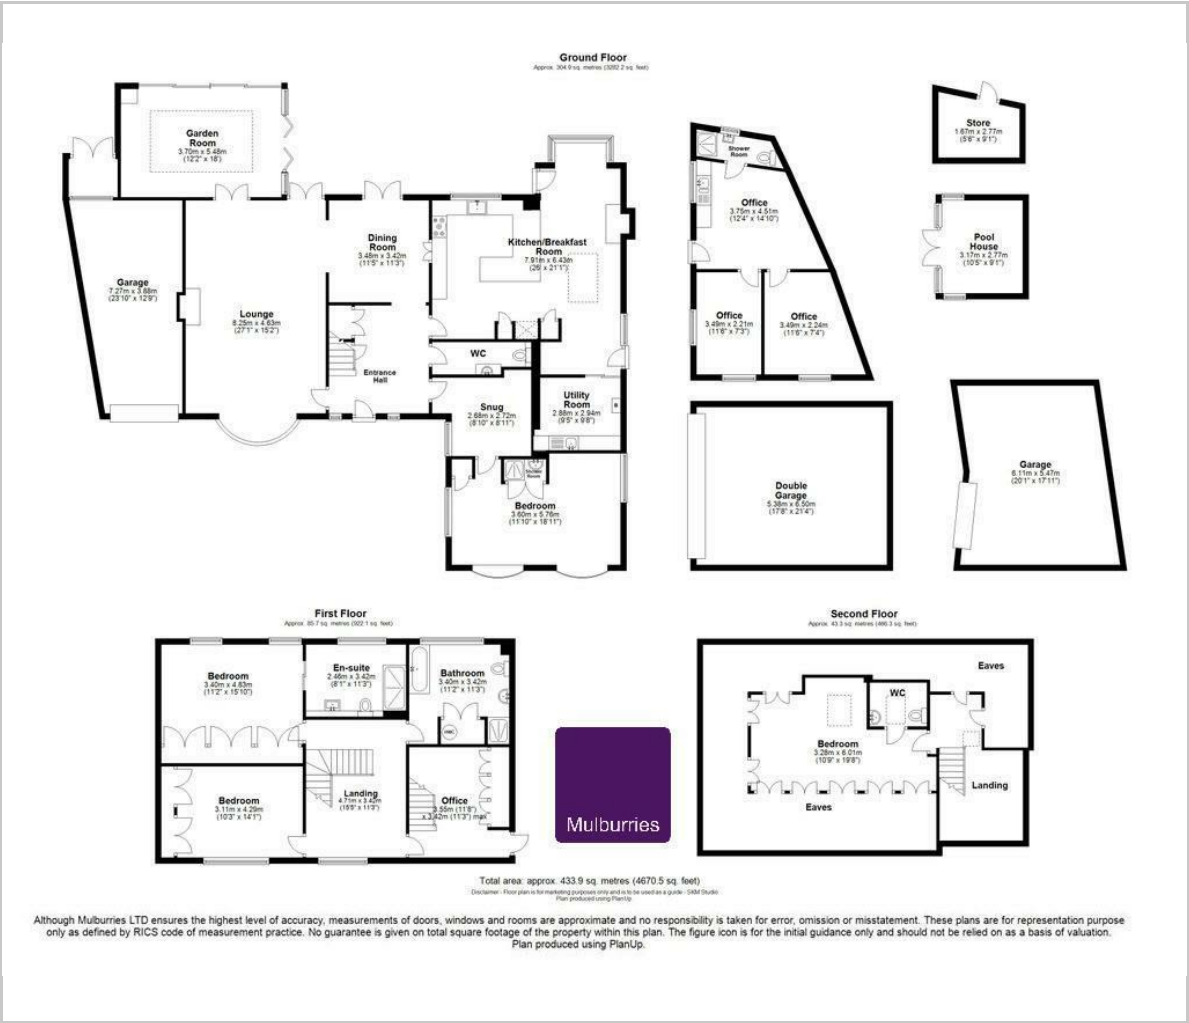

Outside, the beautifully landscaped garden is a true showstopper, featuring a sparkling swimming pool and AstroTurf games area — all bathed in sunlight thanks to its south-facing orientation. A detached two-bedroom annexe offers fantastic flexibility as a guest suite, office, gym, or studio. The home also includes 2–3 garages, and planning permission is already granted for a double storey extension.

Located just 25 miles from London, Longdean Park offers excellent transport links via nearby train stations to London Euston, and easy access to the M1 and M25. The highly regarded Abbot's Hill School is just across the road, with a fantastic selection of local shops and restaurants close by.

A rare chance to own a truly special home in a premier location. Stylish, spacious, and full of potential — this is the lifestyle upgrade you've been waiting for.
