Beautifully presented and within walking distance of Bedford Park...

This beautifully presented two-bedroom mid-terrace home offers bright, stylish accommodation with a wonderful sense of space throughout.

At the heart of the property is a superb open-plan living and dining room, flooded with natural light from large windows fitted with elegant shutter blinds. This inviting space is perfect for both relaxing and entertaining, with a seamless flow into the dining area and direct access to the garden.

To the rear, the kitchen is larger than average and thoughtfully designed, featuring modern units, double ovens, and a gas hob. There is also space for informal dining, creating a practical and sociable environment. The kitchen is filled with natural light and also benefits from access to the garden.

Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms of a generous size, along with a spacious and well-appointed family bathroom, complete with vanity units, a double-length shower, and a separate bath.

There is also an attic room offering a further useful area and/or storage space.

Externally, the property boasts a beautifully maintained, south-facing garden. The paved terrace is ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining, complemented by mature planting and a charming seating area, creating a private outdoor space.

Overall, this is a superb home, thoughtfully presented and ready to move into.

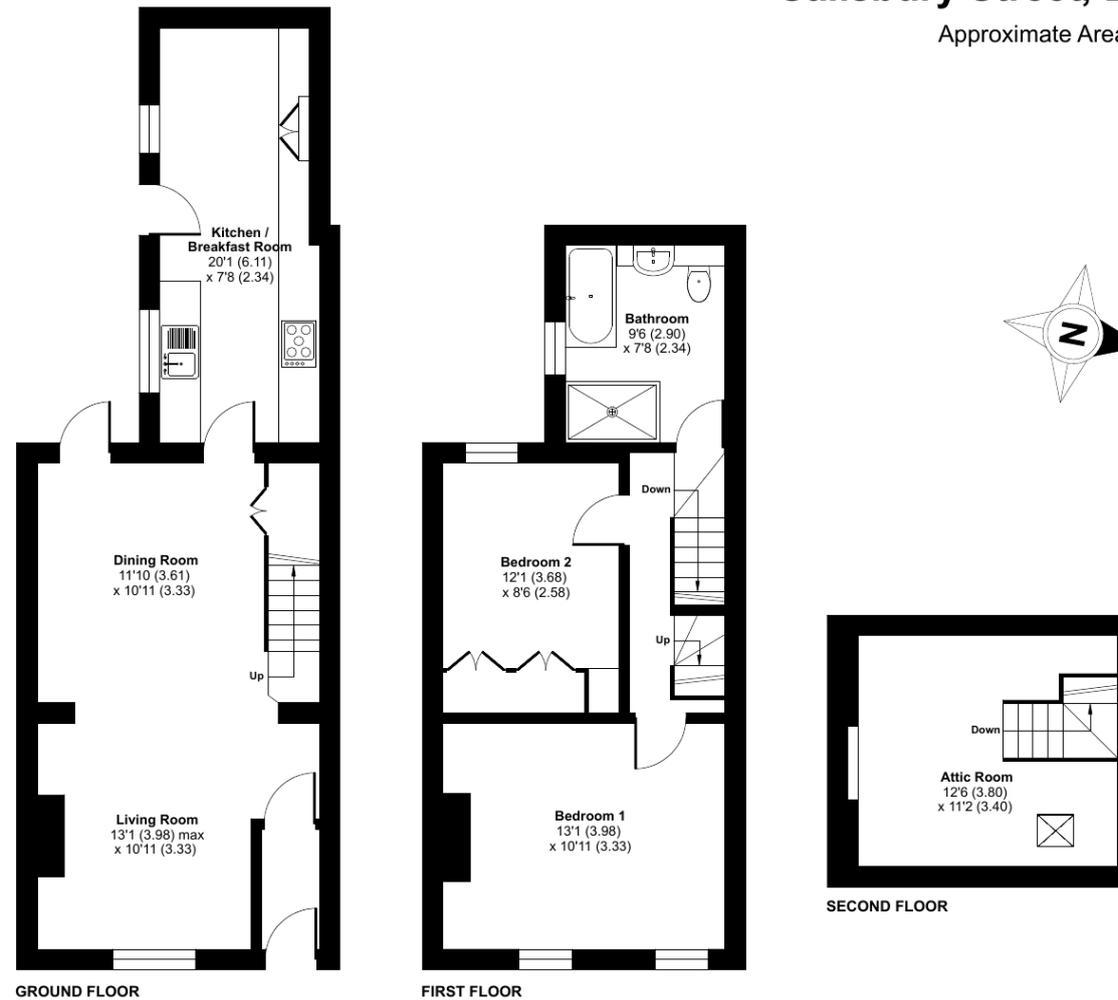

Ideally located, Bedford Park is just a short stroll away, while Bedford town centre is within easy walking distance, offering a wide range of shops, cafes, and restaurants. Bedford railway station is also nearby, providing fast and frequent services to London and beyond.
