De Briane Close Sturminster Newton

Guide Price
£650,000

A beautifully presented four-bedroom detached home with three reception rooms, a conservatory, a double garage and a wrap around garden, presented to the market with the bonus of no onward chain. Tucked away in a quiet cul de sac, this lovely family home boasts wonderful views over the surrounding countryside and is immaculate throughout.

Built in 2001, the property has been the much-loved home of our sellers for the last twelve years. During this time it has been kept in immaculate condition and offers well-proportioned, light-filled accommodation, perfect for family life and entertaining alike. A welcoming entrance hall with a handsome wooden staircase rises to a galleried landing, and solid wood doors run throughout. The large triple aspect sitting room is centred around an impressive exposed brick fireplace with a wood burner, and flows through to a bright conservatory, taking in the views. There is also a separate dining room, a study, and a generous kitchen with space for a dining table. A utility room and a particularly large downstairs cloakroom complete the ground floor. Upstairs, all four bedrooms are good sized doubles with built-in wardrobes, two of which benefit from en-suites, together with a family bathroom. Outside, there is driveway parking, a double garage with power and light, and a good sized wrap around garden, mainly laid to lawn.

De Briane Close enjoys a peaceful position within the popular market town of Sturminster Newton, set in the heart of the Blackmore Vale. It is well placed for access to wonderful countryside walks, including the North Dorset Trailway, while remaining within easy reach of the town centre and its range of amenities. The nearby towns of Shaftesbury, Blandford Forum and Sherborne are all within easy driving distance, with mainline railway stations at Gillingham and Sherborne.

The Property

Inside

The front door opens into a welcoming entrance hall, where a handsome wooden staircase with turned spindles and a polished handrail rises to the first floor, setting the tone for the quality found throughout. Solid wood doors lead off to all main ground floor rooms. There is an abundance of storage, with a large larder style cupboard and a further large cupboard under the stairs, and for easy cleaning the floor is laid to tile, which continues through to the kitchen and utility room. The kitchen is a good size, with plenty of room for a dining table, and a delightful outlook over the neighbouring field. It leads through to the utility room, which has a door out to the rear garden. From the hall there is a separate dining room, ideal for entertaining, and through here is a further room currently used as a study, perfect for those working from home. The downstairs cloakroom is a particularly generous room and offers potential to create a downstairs shower room if desired. The sitting room is a large and wonderfully bright triple aspect room. Its real focal point is the impressive exposed brick chimney breast, which rises to the ceiling and has a wooden beam mantel and a raised brick hearth housing a wood burner, perfect for cosy winter evenings. Glazed double doors lead through to the conservatory, a lovely spot to sit and enjoy the far reaching views over the surrounding countryside.
