IF YOU LIVED HERE...

Your front reception room has been newly decorated, with new timber-effect flooring underfoot and ornate beading, all illuminated in natural light thanks to the generously-sized bay window. The kitchen is spacious with storage and counter space aplenty, so entertaining will never be a juggle. The bedrooms are just as pristine – and the front one has a handy built-in cupboard, while the bathroom is smart and modern. Outside, you'll find your own private garden, and if you want more greenery, Thomas Gamuel Park is just moments away. Want even more space? Head to Walthamstow Wetlands or Lloyd

Park, both walkable – or an even quicker bike ride. As for socialising, you're perfectly placed to enjoy the benefits of Walthamstow Central, Walthamstow Village and the St James St neighbourhood. At the latter, you'll find the dynamic social hub CRATE St James, buzzing with creative ventures, from independent eateries and florists to yoga studios and boutiques. You're also a five minute stroll from Europe's longest market, which runs along the High Street. You're in good company because another newbie to this area is Japanese restaurant Taro, which is housed in the old pie and mash shop there (it's a listed space so you can still enjoy the old traditional features). There's plenty more to explore though, so you'll enjoy uncovering your own favourite gems.

WHAT ELSE?

- Walthamstow Central has brilliant amenities, including the nine-screen Empire cinema and the chains found in the 17&Central shopping centre. Hoe Street also has some fantastic perks, with the Soho Theatre Walthamstow set to open there in 2024.
- Walthamstow Queens Road station is eight minutes on foot for the overground running between Barking and Gospel Oak, perfect if you want to nip to the Essex seaside or open space of Hampstead Heath.
- Walthamstow Village has an amazing selection of eateries, ranging from Poke bowl specialists Peeld, Modern British deliciousness at Eat 17, tasty takeout from Orford's Fish & Chips and mouthwatering Spanish bites at Orford Saloon Tapas Bar.
