Description

This wonderful detached home is a true rare find, boasting all the charm and character of a period property with the benefits and ease of a newly renovated house. Set in the popular village of Thornton-Le-Clay which is well placed for access to York and Malton via the A64 yet offers all the benefits of the more rural setting.

Thornton-Le-Clay is within easy reach of Castle Howard, The North Yorkshire Moors and many local amenities including the nearby Foston C of E primary School.

Extended and much improved by the current owner, the truly flexible, spacious accommodation is sure to appeal to a range of potential purchasers. An entrance hall leads to the living room with attractive inglenook fireplace and separate snug. The large dining kitchen is fitted with a range of units and integrated appliances with dining and seating areas and a utility room and WC beyond. To the first floor are three bedrooms with a stunning en suite shower room and dressing area to the master suite in addition to the beautifully finished house bathroom.

Externally, the benefits include a thoughtfully landscaped, enclosed rear garden, driveway parking and brick-built garage which offers potential as a home office / studio subject to necessary consents.
