The Property

A well presented charming end-of-terrace character home arranged over three floors, offering spacious and versatile accommodation in a highly sought-after location just a short walk from the town centre and its excellent amenities.

The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall with cloakroom, a comfortable sitting room featuring a wood-burning stove and stone fireplace; and a fitted kitchen that opens into a bright dining/family room with doors leading directly onto the beautifully landscaped west-facing rear garden—perfect for entertaining and outdoor living.

The upper floors provide three generous double bedrooms and a family bathroom, offering excellent space for growing families or those working from home.

A particular feature of the property is the substantial detached office and studio, complete with its own WC, providing an ideal space for home working or creative pursuits.

Outside, the attractive west-facing rear garden is beautifully planted and enjoys a high degree of privacy, while off-road parking is available to the front of the property, together with an electric car charger.

Malmesbury

Reported to be England's oldest borough, dating from around 880AD, and voted Best Town in the South West in 2026. Malmesbury is a vibrant market town. Home to a stunning 12th century Abbey, a 15th century Market Cross and a charming High Street with unique, independent shops. There are lovely walks along the beautiful River Avon, fabulous cafes, restaurants, pubs and the oldest Hotel in England. It has a Waitrose supermarket, a regular farmers' market, a library, museum, leisure centre with pool, two primary schools and a 'High Performing Academy' secondary school. It is also home to the UK headquarters of Dyson. Nearby are the popular attractions of Westonbirt Arboretum and the Cotswold Water Park. The City of Bath is 23 miles to the south-west and J17 of the M4, 5 miles south, provides access to the area's major employment centres and there are trains to Paddington in just over an hour from Chippenham and Kemble. The nearest airport is at Bristol and London Heathrow is within easy reach along the M4.

Directions to SN16 OBE
