Location

The Parish of Chidham and Hambrook is an attractive rural parish situated five miles west of Chichester and is made up of the villages Hambrook and Chidham with Nutbourne East. A beautiful location with a wonderful sense of community. The Parish is lucky enough to have a primary school and a close by secondary school in a neighbouring village of Southbourne. In addition, the village boasts a couple of public houses, a village hall, a church, convenience shop with a post office, a train station, and bus routes. Situated located along the A259 which enables you to pick up the A27 conveniently. There is an abundance of public footpaths for walkers, and the beautiful shore of Chichester Harbour to enjoy.
