Armorial Road

CV3 6GJ

Nestled on one of Styvechale's most prestigious and sought-after tree-lined avenues, this exceptional detached family home beautifully blends authentic period character with an enviable semi-rural lifestyle. From the moment you arrive, the home impresses with its striking oak-framed covered porch and grand oak entrance hall, leading into a property that is brilliantly well-lit throughout. Timeless oak strip flooring flows seamlessly across the ground floor spaces, complemented by magnificent original features including an exquisite stained-glass window that floods the home with natural light. To the rear, the property opens up to a private oasis, boasting a mature, beautifully laid-out, and meticulously maintained garden that backs directly onto scenic, tranquil horse fields.

Perfectly positioned for families, the home is located within the catchment area of highly regarded local educational institutions, including Stivichall Primary School, Finham Park School, and the prestigious independent King Henry VIII School. Alongside outstanding local schooling, the home offers an unbeatable lifestyle balance, situated just a short stroll from the expansive walking routes and green open spaces of Coventry's historic War Memorial Park. Commuters will find the location equally flawless; with Coventry Railway Station just a 5-minute drive away, city professionals can reach London Euston in under 50 minutes, while swift road links to the A45 and A46 networks provide effortless connectivity across the wider West Midlands. Birmingham airport a 10 minute train ride away or 20 minute drive.
