DESCRIPTION

The Walnut Tree is an individual detached bungalow constructed in 1988, built of Purbeck stone with part rendered elevations under a pitched roof. The property offers well-proportioned and versatile single-storey accommodation extending to approximately 1,700 sq ft, including a self-contained annexe.

The main accommodation is arranged around a central entrance hall. There are three bedrooms and a family bathroom, with the principal bedroom benefitting from fitted wardrobes and a recently updated en-suite shower room. A separate study provides useful additional space for home working.

The kitchen is fitted with a range of modern units and integrated appliances, with space for dining and access to a utility room. The main sitting room features a fireplace and leads through to a spacious garden room with a vaulted ceiling, providing an excellent year-round living space. A separate dining room sits adjacent to the kitchen.

The annexe, converted from the original garage, offers independent accommodation with an open-plan living area, fitted kitchen and shower room, suitable for guests or multi-generational living.

The property has been well maintained and improved in recent years, including a new boiler, updated heating system, replacement glazing, improved insulation and a refitted kitchen and en-suite.

The property stands within a plot of approximately 0.28 acres and enjoys a predominantly southerly aspect. The gardens have been thoughtfully redesigned and include a variety of planted borders, raised beds and areas of lawn, along with a greenhouse.

A gravelled driveway leads to a double carport with adjoining workshop, providing ample parking and storage. Additional access is available to the rear, where there is further lawned garden and access to the annexe.
