The ground and first-floor flats retain many original features, including impressive high ceilings and flamboyant decorative ceiling roses, typical of the Victorian era. Several also enjoy pleasant views towards some of Chester's iconic landmarks.

Kitchens are fitted with beech-effect base units and black laminate worktops, incorporating a sink, fridge and compact electric oven with two-ring hob. Each flat is individually carpeted, with vinyl cushion flooring to the kitchen areas. The layouts have been thoughtfully designed to maximise available space, creating practical and easily manageable living accommodation.

All bathrooms and en-suites comprise a shower cubicle with electric shower, white washbasin and WC, with vinyl cushion flooring.

The communal areas are light and airy, with carpet-tile flooring, cream-painted walls and white woodwork. All doors are fire doors, with wired glass incorporated into the internally glazed windows separating the landing areas, providing fire breaks between floors.

Economy 7 storage heaters provide heating to the communal passages and hallways, creating a warm and welcoming environment. Lighting comprises a combination of maintained emergency lighting and ceiling lights operated by timer switches.

The fire alarm system is regularly serviced, along with the emergency lighting. The main fire alarm control panel is located in the ground-floor side entrance lobby. Fire safety provisions have also recently been upgraded to meet current regulations.

GROUND FLOOR

A beautifully painted green door to the side of the property provides access to a communal entrance lobby, serving Flats 1 and 2. The lobby benefits from Economy 7 heating and lighting operated by timed switches. The main fire alarm control panel for the building is also housed here.

EXTERNALLY

The property sits proudly behind a white-painted boundary wall, topped with mature hedging and complemented by attractive driveway pillars engraved with the words "5, The Chalet".

A gravel driveway provides ample parking for the flats and is enclosed by established hedging and a brick wall, offering both privacy and an attractive setting.

To the rear, the original brick-built wash house remains, together with a walled courtyard garden.

The property is an attractive example of Victorian architecture in the Italian Renaissance style, featuring Grade II listed black-painted timber windows. The rear windows have been upgraded to modern double glazing. The impressive first-floor bay windows, complemented by ornate wrought-iron railings, are a particularly striking feature and showcase the grandeur and craftsmanship of the Victorian era.

IMPORTANT NOTICE – PROPERTY PARTICULARS DISCLAIMER

These particulars have been prepared by the Agent for general information and guidance only. They are intended to provide prospective purchasers with an overview of the property and do not constitute, nor form any part of, an offer, contract, warranty or representation.

Whilst reasonable care has been taken in preparing these particulars, neither the Agent nor the Seller gives any representation, warranty or guarantee, express or implied, as to the accuracy, completeness or reliability of any information provided. Prospective purchasers must not rely upon these particulars as statements or representations of fact and should satisfy themselves as to the accuracy of any information which is important to their decision to purchase.

All descriptions, measurements, dimensions, areas, distances, photographs, floorplans, maps, boundaries and other particulars are approximate and provided for guidance only. Photographs and marketing materials may not represent the property's current condition, and floorplans are intended to illustrate general layout only and should not be relied upon for measurements, boundaries, construction, alterations or any other purpose.

No statement made by the Agent regarding the condition, construction, structure, foundations, roof, state of repair, defects or suitability of the property should be regarded as a survey, structural assessment or professional opinion. Neither the Agent nor the Seller warrants that the property is structurally sound or free from defects. Prospective purchasers are strongly advised to commission their own appropriate survey, inspection and/or specialist reports from suitably qualified professionals before entering into a binding commitment.

The Agent has not tested any appliances, equipment, fixtures, fittings, heating systems, boilers, electrical installations, plumbing, drainage, utilities, telecommunications or other services unless expressly stated otherwise in writing. No warranty is given that any such items or services are present, connected, in working order, safe, compliant with applicable requirements or suitable for the purchaser's intended use. Purchasers should arrange their own inspections and testing where required.

Information concerning tenure, title, boundaries, rights of way, easements, covenants, restrictions, leases, service charges, ground rent, council tax, planning permissions, building regulations, alterations, extensions, guarantees, certificates, utilities and other legal or regulatory matters is provided for guidance only and should be independently verified by the purchaser's solicitor or other appropriately qualified adviser.

Any reference to development potential, possible alterations, extensions, conversions or alternative uses of the property does not constitute confirmation that the necessary planning permission, building regulations approval, consents or other permissions have been or will be granted. Purchasers must make their own enquiries with the appropriate authorities and professional advisers.

The inclusion of any fixture, fitting, appliance, furniture or other item in photographs or particulars does not necessarily mean that it is included in the sale. The purchaser should confirm with their solicitor which items are included or excluded.

Prospective purchasers should undertake their own due diligence and obtain such legal, financial, surveying, structural, environmental and other professional advice as they consider appropriate before exchange of contracts or otherwise becoming legally committed to the purchase.

The property may be sold, withdrawn or otherwise become unavailable without notice, and prospective purchasers are advised to confirm availability with the Agent before travelling to view.

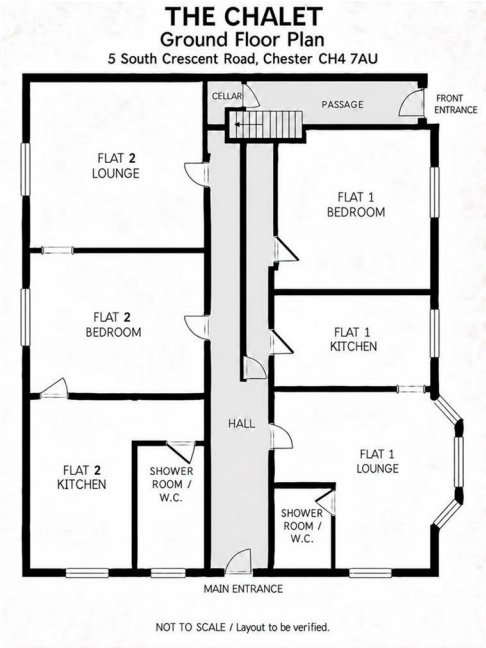

No employee, representative or negotiator of the Agent has authority to give any representation, warranty or guarantee in relation to the property unless expressly confirmed in writing by an authorised person.

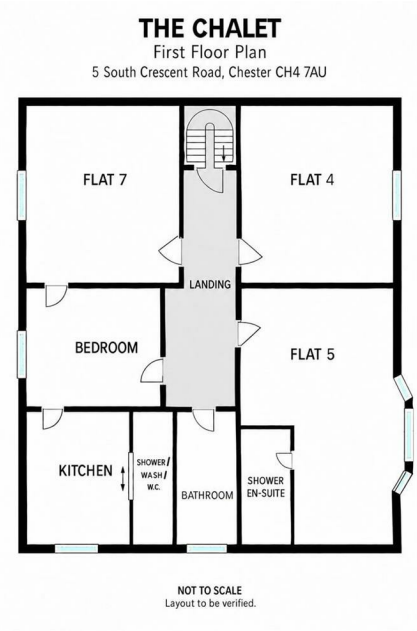

Nothing in this disclaimer is intended to exclude, restrict or limit any liability or consumer right which cannot lawfully be excluded, restricted or limited.

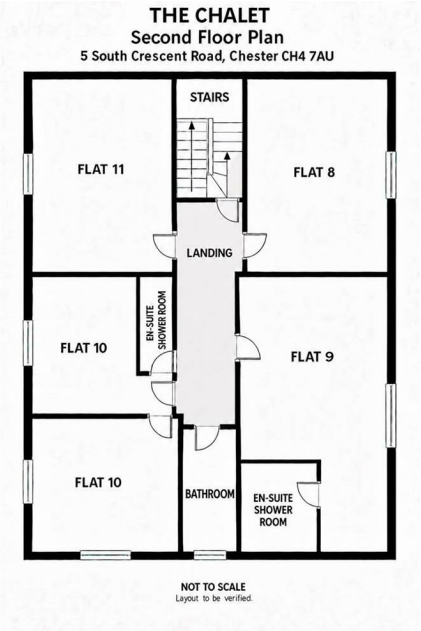

These particulars are provided for guidance only and are subject to verification and, where applicable, the Seller's approval.
