This two-bedroom detached bungalow is presented to the market for an incoming owner to renovate the property to their own taste with planning permission in place. The sitting - dining room is spacious with multiple aspects to the wrap-around garden and could be opened up to the kitchen to create a further open-plan space. The two bedrooms are both well-proportioned. The garage is supplemented by the driveway with parking for multiple cars.

Situated in this quiet location within walking distance to the High Street with shopping, a selection of restaurants and other local amenities. Sutton has an excellent choice of local schooling with both private and state schools easily accessible. Bus services from the High Street are available to neighbouring towns including Banstead, Epsom and Reigate. The A217 provides an arterial route to the M25 at Junction 8 (Reigate Hill).

Centre location | Less than half of a mile to the High Street | Naturally secluded wrap-around gardens | Plot approaching 0.25 acre | Plenty of storage | Garage | No onward chain | Planning permission granted
