

Castle Avenue, E4

£5,000 Per calendar month

This unique and elegantly appointed five bedroom Victorian semi detached. Arranged over three storeys this well-presented property offers a balanced and harmonious layout, with a natural flow between the living spaces. The considered arrangement creates a welcoming atmosphere throughout the home.

One of the main highlights is the front and rear garden. A vast wealth of sociable space, expertly landscaped with pristine patio and substantial swing set/ climbing frame. Secured gated off road parking. An enviable address just moments from Highams Park and station. There is an option for the property to come furnished or unfurnished.

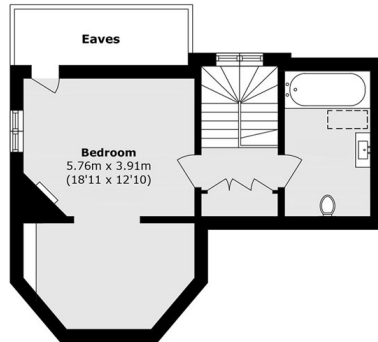

Castle Avenue is location on a residential street. Highams Park station is just a three-minute walk away, providing direct connections to Liverpool Street and the City. Alternatively, travel two stops to Walthamstow Central for access to the Victoria line. A short distance to the North Circular.

Walking distance to Highams Park with its beautiful lake, superb views across the capital to the City skyline. An excellent selection of drinking and dining spots can be found right on your doorstep, including the Stag & Lantern micropub and Vino Tap, specialists in craft ale and wine respectively. Both are just a couple of minutes' walk beyond the station.
