

The Russets, Upwell Wisbech PE14 9AJ

Welcome to

The Russets, Upwell Wisbech

An excellent opportunity to purchase this well-proportioned three-bedroom bungalow situated in the sought-after village of Upwell, which offers a range of amenities including local shops, food establishments and community facilities. Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by a long entrance hallway which provides access to the majority of the accommodation and enhances the sense of space throughout. There are two small double bedrooms and a further single bedroom, all well positioned within the main body of the bungalow. The property benefits from both a separate shower room and an individual WC, offering added practicality for family living. Further along the hallway you will find the generous lounge, one of the final rooms before the rear extension, creating a cosy yet spacious setting ideal for relaxing or entertaining. The separate kitchen offers ample storage and workspace with a practical layout. To the rear of the property, the bungalow has been extended to provide additional versatile living space, comprising a second reception room and a home office. This area also provides internal access to the single garage, adding further convenience and storage options. Externally, the property enjoys an enclosed, easy-to-maintain rear garden, perfect for outdoor enjoyment with minimal upkeep. The garden also benefits from two sheds, providing excellent additional storage. Viewings are highly recommended.
