#NO1PROPERTYFINDER

129A Newington Green Road, London, N1 4RA

Asking price £700,000

Positioned in the heart of Newington Green, this rare freehold investment offers a compelling blend of commercial and residential income within one of North London's most desirable village-style neighbourhoods.

The property comprises a self-contained retail unit arranged over ground and lower ground floors, currently producing £14,000 per annum, with a separate one-bedroom split-level flat generating £24,600 per annum. Together, the property offers a strong combined income stream with clear long-term investment appeal. The flat extends to approximately 539 sq ft and benefits from its own private courtyard, a genuine rarity for a property of this nature. The residential accommodation is entirely independent from the commercial space, making it attractive to both investors seeking diversified income and owner-occupiers looking to combine home and business.
