14 Church Walk, Headcorn, TN27 9NP

Asking Price £500,000
EPC RATING: D

Beautifully refurbished to a high standard throughout by Cox Restorations on behalf of the current vendor, this unlisted double fronted Georgian cottage is located in this beautiful pedestrian turning in the heart of the village, overlooking St Peters and St Pauls Church. Offering a spacious sitting room/dining room with feature woodburning stove and brick surround, a door from here takes you into the beautiful bright and airy kitchen/breakfast room, with three windows overlooking the rear and offering a range of quality fitted cabinetry and stable door to the garden. Upstairs, the spacious landing leads to the two double bedrooms, both with built in storage and the quality fitted shower room with walk in shower.

Outside, the property offers gated access beside the house to the generous side and rear gardens, which offer a large brick paved terrace beside the lawned garden with mature flowers and shrub beds and vegetable beds as well as a very useful outside gardeners W.C.

Overlooking St Peters and St Pauls Church, Church Walk is a pedestrian pathway leading from North Street and leads around to Moat Road at the other end. Parking can be found in the village hall car park, with permission for local residents from the Parish Council, with the village itself offering a mix of independent shops, cafes and restaurants, Post Office, Sainsbury's Local, Costa Coffee, popular pubs and the Tap Room as well as being within easy walking distance of the mainline train station for the commuter, with regular services into London Charing Cross and Cannon Street stations.
