IF YOU LIVED HERE.....

With approximately 855 square feet to enjoy, the layout here feels generous from the outset. The large open plan kitchen and reception room stretches to over twenty four feet, giving you plenty of space to cook, dine and relax in one easy, sociable setting. The room is finished in soft neutral shades, with a broad window drawing in the light and a recessed ceiling detail with spotlights adding a smart contemporary touch. In the kitchen, sleek white cabinetry, dark worktops and a central island bring a clean, practical finish.

Both bedrooms are genuine doubles, set separately from the main living space for a pleasing sense of balance and privacy. The principal bedroom is particularly spacious, with fitted storage already in place, while the second bedroom is also a lovely size and just as adaptable, whether used for guests, a child's room or a calm work from home spot. The gentle colour palette and soft carpeting keep both rooms feeling restful and settled.

The bathroom sits neatly between the bedrooms and is smartly finished with large format stone effect tiling, a bath with overhead shower and built in shelving. Altogether, the home feels well considered and easy to live in, with roomy proportions, simple contemporary styling and a layout that makes very good use of the space. Living so close to Epping Forest, and with Highams Park itself on your doorstep, brings a real sense of calm, while the neighbourhood around you has plenty of life to it too. Local favourites including Vino Tap, The Stag & Lantern, Yaz, Biba & Wren and Mood Lift are all nearby, and there is also the added convenience of a Tesco Superstore for the day to day essentials.

WHAT ELSE?

- The Royal Oak is around a ten minute walk away and makes a lovely local for good food and a relaxed evening out.
- Along with the private garage, drivers will appreciate how quickly you can reach the North Circular, while the M25 is also within easy reach.
- You are well placed for enjoying more of East London too, with easy access into Walthamstow for the much loved spots around Wood Street, Hoe Street and Walthamstow Village.

A WORD FROM THE OWNER.....

"The flat is moments away from great cafes and restaurants, plus just a few minutes walk from the overground, so it's ideal for commuting into central London. There's also an enormous Tesco within walking distance, and you'll be just around the corner from scenic views of the lake at Highams Park and Epping Forest."
