This impressively specified four-bedroom family home offers generous, well-proportioned living space throughout. Built just four years ago, the property has been thoughtfully upgraded and extended, featuring a stunning open-plan dining area added to the main living kitchen. High-end enhancements continue with upgraded bathroom suites and custom fitted wardrobes in every bedroom.

Step outside into the thoughtfully landscaped rear garden, designed for effortless, low-maintenance outdoor living with high-quality artificial turf. Practical features abound, including a side gate leading directly to the driveway, as well as convenient courtesy door access straight into the garage. Beautifully presented from top to bottom, viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate everything this turn-key home has to offer.

LOCATION

The property is located on Walker Close which encompasses just two properties. Accessed off Grey Willow Drive via Peters Way the property lies on the south side of Beverley with pedestrian and cycle access via Spark Mill Lane into the centre of Beverley. Peters Way is accessed off the southern bypass/Minster Way and as such the property has ease of access onto the major road network.
