Situation

Melksham is a well-established market town in the heart of Wiltshire, offering an excellent range of amenities while enjoying convenient access to the surrounding towns and countryside. The town provides a comprehensive selection of supermarkets, independent retailers, cafés, restaurants, schools, healthcare facilities and leisure amenities, making it a popular choice for families, professionals and investors alike.

The town benefits from good transport links, with a railway station providing regular services on the TransWilts line between Swindon, Chippenham, Trowbridge, Westbury and Salisbury. The A350 bypass offers excellent road connections to Chippenham, the M4 motorway, Trowbridge and the wider South West, while the Georgian city of Bath is within easy commuting distance.

Melksham has experienced significant residential and commercial growth in recent years, supported by a strong local economy and a range of employment opportunities. The town is well placed for access to nearby attractions including Lacock, Bowood House and Gardens, Corsham and the Kennet & Avon Canal, together with the beautiful Wiltshire countryside.

Combining modern amenities, excellent transport links and an attractive market town setting, Melksham continues to be a desirable location for owner-occupiers, landlords and developers, offering a broad appeal within the Wiltshire property market.
